[redacted] was interviewed at his office. [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent, and was advised he was being contacted regarding his representation of an individual named JOHN ELLSWORTH and a company called BUSICORP-IRI. [redacted] then furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that in approximately October 1987, JOHN ELLSWORTH contacted [redacted] and requested that [redacted] represent him and an insurance company identified as BUSICORP-INC. and IRI INSURANCE INC. ELLSWORTH was referred to [redacted] through a [redacted] who is a [redacted]. The initial meeting with ELLSWORTH was conducted by [redacted] a paralegal. A short time later ELLSWORTH and [redacted] an associate of ELLSWORTH, met with [redacted] in [redacted] office. ELLSWORTH told [redacted] he was being abused by the trustee of a firm called COMERCIAL ACCEPTANCE CORPORATION (CAC) and ELLSWORTH had insurance companies which would be able to make good on the CAC notes.
ELLSWORTH also said that there was sufficient collateral to cover any losses incurred by CAC. ELLSWORTH told [redacted] that he had recently taken over the helm of CAC. [redacted] was sure that ELLSWORTH stated that the insurance company was in place and legitimate. ELLSWORTH did state that he knew [redacted] who was supposedly involved in the formation of the insurance company.

b6
b7C

At least two letters were drafted by [redacted] utilizing information furnished by ELLSWORTH regarding the status of the BUSICORP-IRI insurance entity. [redacted] stated that he was under the impression that ELLSWORTH came in after CAC had encountered financial problems with the investors and ELLSWORTH was going to be the individual to remedy the situation.

b6
b7C

ELLSWORTH paid [redacted] possibly $5000.00 via check which subsequently was returned for nonsufficient funds. [redacted] does not have the check or a copy of the check.

[redacted] said he recalls making some telephone calls to Europe, but he does not recall the details.

[redacted] stated that he represented ELLSWORTH and BUSICORP IRI at investor meetings which were conducted at the insistence of CAC investors in late 1987.
